Dr. J.A. Campbell Young Investigator Award

For Research in Celiac Disease and Dermatitis Herpetiformis

Award
An award of up to $5,000 is offered by the Canadian Celiac Association for work done in Canada (or by an investigator from Canada temporarily working elsewhere and committed to return to Canada) of a scientific, applied science, medical, and/or social nature relevant to Celiac Disease (gluten-induced enteropathy) or Dermatitis Herpetiformis.

Eligibility
Individuals under the age of 35 or not more than five (5) years after graduation from a recognized Medical or Health Sciences School, University Undergraduate, or Graduate Training Program.

Application
Application may be made by the individual researcher, his/her prospective supervisor, members of the Canadian Celiac Association or others interested in the furtherance of knowledge regarding Celiac Disease or Dermatitis Herpetiformis. Letters of Application should not exceed three (3) pages and must include project goals and rationale, a statement from the mentor/sponsor regarding how the work will enhance the applicant's training, a description of the research, a budget, and the mentor/sponsor's commitment to facilitating the project. A paragraph stating how the research will advance their career plans is reqired from student applicants. If this award is sought in conjunction with the JA Campbell Research Grant, include a statement outlining how the funds for each award will be separately used.

Letters of Application must be received by the Canadian Celiac Association no later than January 17, 2011, and each will be acknowledged. The Executive Director will forward these applications to the Professional Advisory Board for adjudication.

Adjudication
Applications will be judged by the Professional Advisory Board of the Canadian Celiac Association who will make a decision regarding the winner or winners, based on the suitability and quality of the proposed work. The recommendation of the Professional Advisory Board will be forwarded to the Executive Committee of the Canadian Celiac Association for ratification.

Notification
The successful candidate will be formally notified by March 4, 2011.

Award
The Award is payable in full following the CCA's decision, and upon receipt or notice from the investigator of ethics approval and that the project is ready to start.

Publicity and Access
The Award recipient(s) may be expected to present their work following its completion at the next Annual General Meeting of the Canadian Celiac Association (usually held in May) with expenses to attend this meeting covered by the Canadian Celiac Association. Notwithstanding the author's rights to publication, the CCA shall be granted the right to publish the final report, whole or in part, in its publications including electronically.

Send applications to: Executive Director
Email: ed@celiac.ca
Fax: 905-507-4673
Mail: 5025 Orbitor Dr., Bldg 1 – Suite 400, Mississauga, ON L4W 4Y5