

Dr. J.A. Campbell Research Fund
Grants in Aid of Research in
Celiac Disease and Dermatitis Herpetiformis
In Canada

Award

A Grant of up to $ 25,000 is offered by the Canadian Celiac Association for research projects in Canada of a scientific, applied science, medical and/or social nature relevant to Celiac Disease and/or Dermatitis Herpetiformis.

Purpose

This Award is to encourage research and further the understanding of the full range of implications of Celiac Disease (gluten-induced enteropathy) and/or Dermatitis Herpetiformis.

Application

Letters of Application should not exceed six (6) pages and must include the purpose or rationale of the project, background information regarding the proposal, a research plan and budget. The applicant's C.V. or resume must also be appended. A certificate of ethical approval (or application for such approval) from the institution at which research is to be conducted is also required.

Applications must be received by the Canadian Celiac Association no later than January 8, 2008, and each will be acknowledged. The Executive Director will forward these applications to the Professional Advisory Board for adjudication.

Adjudication

Applications will be judged by the Professional Advisory Board of the Canadian Celiac Association who will make a decision regarding the winner or winners, based on the suitability and quality of the proposed work. The recommendation of the Professional Advisory Board will be forwarded to the Executive Committee of the Canadian Celiac Association for ratification.

Notification

The successful candidate will be formally notified by February 29, 2008.

Award

Grants are payable in two (2) installments. The first installment (60% of the award) will be paid upon receipt or notice from the investigator of ethics approval, and that the project is ready to start. The second installment (40%) will be paid upon receipt of a satisfactory progress report.

Publicity and Access

The Award recipient may be expected to present the work following its completion at the next Annual General Meeting of the Canadian Celiac Association (usually held in May) with expenses to attend this meeting covered by the Canadian Celiac Association.

Notwithstanding the author's rights to publication, the CCA shall be granted the right to publish the final report, whole or in part, in its publications including electronically.
